The Reading Week Celebration

19th June - 25 th June

Principal's Message

The basic aim of education is to nurture and to stimulate the creative potential within an individual. This vidyalaya endeavours to provide the best possible environment to nourish the talents and innate abilities of the students. Our aim is not only to help them excel academically but also to inculcate in them the qualities of the head and heart so that they are able to meet all the great courage and confidence.

Our teachers are working hard towards the overall development of the personality of students and to make them disciplined citizens of tomorrow . I would like the students to develop faith in themselves and go all out to achieve their goals in life, with a positive attitude. Do not stop till your goals are achieved.

BEST OF LUCK.

Special Publication

We are pleased to announce the launch of special Newsletter. This special edition will be sent out in the month of July and we will be regularly creating original content quarterly

The format will allow us to approach concepts that do not necessarily fit within the structure of our blog or case studies. This will include a behind the scenes look at what we have been building to inspire new ideas and provide benefit to your business. With these curated briefings, we hope to give readers inside access to what we have been researching, designing, building and thinking. We hope this will be a welcome addition to your inbox and encourage your reading skill.

Why Reading is Important ?

A room without books is like a body without a soul.”

Reading is one of the most important habits one needs to develop in life. It is rightly quoted that books are your best companions. Good books can inform you, enlighten you and lead you to the right direction. There is no better companion than a good book. Books give you a whole new experience. Developing reading habit from early age leads to enduring love for books.

Not only can good books be your best friend but also the best teacher. Reading good books will give you immense knowledge, information and a completely different experience. Reading will give you a new and better perspective of life. It will teach you new lessons of life. Reading improves your vocabulary and develops your communication skills. It helps you learn how to use your language creatively. Good communication is important in every aspect of life. The chief benefit of reading good books is that it develops your critical thinking. The more you read the deeper you understand and process the information. Critical thinking is important in life to manage day to day situations. Reading a good book takes you in a new world and helps you relieve your day to day stress. It has several positive effects on your mind, body and soul. It stimulates your brain muscles and keeps your brain healthy and strong. Reading books is the most fruitful way to use time. It keeps you occupied and helps you get rid of stress in life. Once you develop the habit of reading you can never get bored. It also improves the function of brain and is the best exercise for brain.
